

READ, WONDER, AND CONNECT

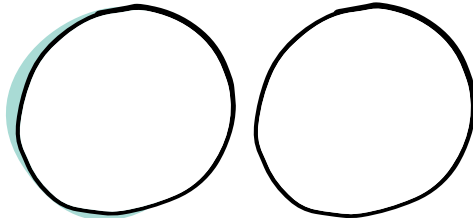

Reading is a way to explore wonderful ideas. Find connections with stories through this graphic organizer.

Title, Author, Literary type of the text you just read, and your favorite word, character or phrase.

Text to Another Text

Think of a character from a different story similar to your favorite character in this text.

your favorite character's picture and name

character from another story's picture and name

- Similarity 1
- Similarity 2
- Similarity 3

Text to Self

Briefly share an event or experience in your life that reminds you of parts of or the entire story.

Text to the Real World

How can I relate the story to the "real world"?

The text will remind you of a historical or current event. Draw or write a description about that below.